Bibliography: Women’s Centers in U.S. Higher Education

Compiled by Amber L. Vlasnik
University of California, San Diego
Updated February 2016

1. Books

2. Journal Articles & Book Chapters

Nicolazzo, Z., & Harris, C. (2014, January/February). This is what a feminist (space) looks like: (Re)conceptualizing women's centers as feminist spaces in higher education. About Campus, 18(6), 2-9. doi:10.1002/abc.21138

3. Articles, Reports, and Documents

-6-

4. Dissertations & Theses

